PROFILE

About Elijah Rodriguez

Elijah Rodriguez is a pastor, author, teacher, and worshiper whose ministry is centered on practical biblical discipleship, spiritual growth, inner healing, leadership development, and helping people discover and fulfill their God-given purpose.

He serves as Lead Pastor of Hope Worship Center in Monmouth County, New Jersey, where the ministry is committed to leading people to Know God, Grow in Christ, Discover Their Purpose, and Make a Difference. His preaching combines biblical teaching with real-life application, speaking to both new believers and mature Christians navigating faith, pain, leadership, relationships, calling, and restoration.

As an author, Elijah writes resources designed to meet people at pivotal moments in their spiritual journey: beginning a relationship with Christ, helping children understand faith, and healing after betrayal. His heart is to disciple multiple generations and walk alongside people who have been wounded both inside and outside the church.
